PublicationsACM publications are designed to educate the public, our membership and the computing community about the news and issues in the computing field. The Association publishes scholarly Journals and Conference Proceedings that contain the latest research in the field. Currently the Association publishes 35 Journals, 4 magazines, over 130 conference proceedings and numerous electronic publications. ACM's Digital Library contains the digital version of ALL of its publications and is serving over 2.400 university. college and corporate libraries around the world as well as over 32.000 ACM members.

Conferences and SeminarsConferences provide the venue to bring together members, community leaders and scholars to discuss current and upcoming issues in the computing field, the latest technology and groundbreaking research. These conferences, for the most part, are associated with the 34 Special Interest Groups and are driven by the volunteers in that particular field of special interest in computing ACM sponsors or co-sponsors over 150 of these events each year varying in size and scope from 25

the use of travel funds

Some travel grants are available to students to attend ACM Conferences with proceedures in place to ensure a fair and unbiased selection from the submissions sent to the numerous selection committees for the various conferences. The proceedures also contain clauses to prevent conflicts for any individual committee member and all grants are given based upon a majority vote of committee members. The students applying for the travel grants are required to show academic correlation to the conference subject matter. The small number of awards that are given are determined by committees with proceedures to ensure the proper evaluation of the nominees. The Association makes a very small number of grants to organizations in the U.S. These organizations share common goals and objectives with ACM. ACM. will occasionally support other organizations in areas where ACM feels there is a benefit to computing and the computing field. These grants are requested at the board or committee level and are approved by the ACM Council or the Executive Committee. All grant recipients are required to submit supporting documentations to support

Form 990, Part XII, Line 2C	Audit Committee Oversight of Annual Audit The Association (ACM) has an Audit Committee that is appointed by the ACM Council and the Committee reports directly to the ACM Council. The Committee is responsible for the selection of the independant public accounting firm to conduct the annual audit of the year-end financial statements. The Audit Committee meets with the audit firm and reviews and approves the audit plan prior to the audit, the audit results, the management report and and all required communications after the conclusion of the audit. The Committee than makes a recommendation to the ACM Council to accept or not accept the report prepared by the audit firm and informs the Council on any items it deems necessary. This process is unchanged from the prior year.
